CTF Team Funding Opportunity

As you may, or may not know, Sport Canada only provides limited funding to CTF for our teams to compete at International events. It is not nearly enough to fully fund the travel, lodging, and entry fee expenses of our athletes when they are representing Canada at these events. And as you know, CTF does not allocate any of our membership fees towards these expenses. Therefore, many of those athletes have to partially, and in some cases, almost fully, cover these costs.

Therefore, we are always looking at ways to help support these athletes in any way we can. In that vein, we have begun a fundraising program with an organization called “Flipgive.com”.

You can join up at their website (it’s free), and purchase gift cards, from a large number of retail organizations, and a small percentage of your purchase goes to help our teams. And it doesn’t cost you anything extra! If you purchase a $100 gift card, you receive the full value of that gift card!

You also have the opportunity to simply make a donation as well. You don’t have to be a bowler to join up. Everyone is welcome! Please spread the word!

Here’s the link to take you straight to the Team Canada - CTF fundraising effort at Flipgive:

Windsor-Essex Chatham-Kent Bowling Association

Submitted by Mike Ouellette, President

The following article was written for The Tilbury Times, a weekly paper in Tilbury, a community of about 4000 people within the municipality of Chatham-Kent in southwestern Ontario. In this day and age, Tilbury's J&D Bowling & Pizza, a 6 lane house, might seem to be an anachronism, but far from it. In addition to the bowling component, J&D has a thriving restaurant, noted for its fresh Lake Erie perch dinners, broasted chicken, pizza, bridal showers, birthday parties, other seasonal parties, and family gatherings. But one must not look upon the centre itself disparagingly. The six synthetic lanes are beautiful, and above each is a Brunswick A-2 pinsetter; the computer-driven lane management is directed by a combination of Brunswick Vector software and CDE's BLS-2017 A/S. Cosmic bowling is also available.

A total of 114 CTF sanctioned bowlers compete at J&D – Monday & Wednesday Men's leagues with 64 bowlers (12 of us are members of both leagues), Tuesday Nite Ladies with 29 women including substitutes, and 21 Youth bowlers in a rejuvenated Saturday program. Naturally all leagues are six teams! An unsanctioned ladies group which includes part of the Tuesday League also bowls on Wednesday mornings. I do the secretarial work for all four sanctioned groups in addition to my Association responsibilities. Thanks, Cathy, for letting me use your April space.

Yesterday was Family Day, a great day for soccer moms and hockey parents and all families to observe. This, then, can be considered Family Week at least when one considers the local bowling community. Traditionally there are a number of familial connections which permeate our sport each year and included here are a number of these which are current. Remarkably, the sport of bowling often transcends generations.

J&D has been owned by Joe and Doreen Belanger for, as Joe says, "X-number of years". Joe participates on the Orion Jewellers' team as their sixth man. Son Dave is a force in both Men's Leagues as is grandson Stefan Stacey. Sister-in-law Renee Belanger recently returned to fill out a roster spot in the Tuesday Nite Ladies League. Renee's sister, Michelle Harper, rejoined at the season's start.

The Cartier family embraces three generations with Judy Cartier serving as the Ladies' Treasurer; son Joe is President of the Men's Leagues, and is a Director in the Windsor Essex Chatham-Kent Bowling Association. Joe's son, Tyler, shows much promise in the Youth program. Behind all this is the inspiration of the late patriarch of the family, Roger Cartier, a longtime bowler who passionately directed the Youth bowlers here for many, many years. Brother-law, John Montpetit, is Joe's teammate on Jams Appliance Repair.

Jay Bennett, who claims he spent most of his life around J&D, says he hates bowling and is employed as the mechanic at Ruthven's Empire Lanes, captains the successful Rivait Motorsport-2 team in the Monday Men's League. Son Eric anchors that team, and Jay's son-in-law, Tyler Roszell, was told to join the team when he married Eric's sister, Rachel. Another member of Jay's team is Ross Gozzard, cousin by marriage to Joe Belanger.

Orion's Jarrod Anderson joined the Men's League largely because twins Cameron and Nathan and now older brother Justin have taken to the sport. Now they have a new common thread and Jarrod is able to commiserate about bowling with them. Each checks everyone's posted scores regularly!

John and Therese Mackay keep busy too. John competes on the J&D team, Rivait-2's arch rival. Being part of a new team, the Pin Pushers, Therese has resumed activity on Tuesday this season after knee surgery. Their son Shawn is a member of the Simpson Electric team, subs on J&D and granddaughter, Karissa, is always one of the first to arrive for the Saturday Youth League.

Ryan McCracken is key member of one of Wednesday's strongest teams, Home Building Centre, along with his father-law, Kim Beselaere. Both are proud of Annabella and Reegan, Ryan's children, who are Youth bowlers too. The Builders also boast a father-son combination, Bruce and Ryan Hill.

Stan and Cory Powell similarly are found at the top and bottom of the Knights of Columbus lineup on Mondays.

Denise Ouimet, Debbie Ouimet and Ruth Ann Ouimet are bowling sisters-in-law. Ruth Ann sometimes competes against the other two and her niece, Mary Jane Goodreau, who form part of the C&E Bombers with Michelle Harper. Sabrina Mosey sometimes subs for her mother, Penny, captain of the On Strike team.

We also must include brothers, Chris and Danny Jones, who are believed to have overcome lifelong sibling rivalry by being on the Laliberte Collision team. Dave Marentette is their teammate, and his sister, Lynn Natyshak, has done an excellent job in heading the Ladies League as its President.

Brothers-in-law, Dave Marshall and Randy Schmeltz, are teammates of Dave Belanger and Shawn Mackay and Randy keeps his attention focused on his grandson, Kaiden on Saturday mornings.

Although Paul Peltier is currently inactive, he and his brother Stan have toiled for Monday's J&D team. Younger cousin Kayden McAuliffe is in his 2nd year in the Youth League and is a teammate of Tyler Cartier.

Robert Roegiest, anchor of the Rivait Motorsports-1 squad, also keeps tabs on the progress of granddaughter, Shayna Jodon.

The future is cast as the Youth League has two other pairs of brothers in addition to the Andersons - Micah and Malachi Meunier, and Hunter and Trevor Nolet. Let the pins fall!

HAMILTON ONTARIO TENPIN NEWS

Submitted by Jim Margueratt

Lanes 15 & 16 at Skyway Lanes were hot recently with three perfect games within a couple of hours, but only two will be sanctioned. Ian Colby was the first with his 300 and the next game Ryan Dickenson notched a 300, for both it was their second of the season. Shortly after in a no-tap tournament, Mick Anderer rolled a 300 with 12 "natural strikes" but ten days later he scored a sanctioned 300 for a 300 that counts. After a 152 game, Aaron Bouchard notched his second 300 of the season and 15th, overall.

Close calls at 299 were registered by Kevin Kartonchik & Stephen Born and at 298 Brian DeFrancesco & Kris Berry and a 297 by Brent LaCroix, while Dave Custeau, Skyway Lanes pro shop owner, tripped the last 11 for a 290.

The first honour score in Canada's oldest sanctioned league, the City Tenpin at 114 years, was carded by Mike LaCroix many years ago and his son Brent almost matched it with his 297. Better late than never but a 297 by Matt Havens at Star Lanes in Brantford in October was just received.

Shawna Prieur with a 300 game at Skyway Lanes is only the 16th Hamilton woman to record a 300. With a 188 average she started with the 300 before staying hot with 266 before slipping to a 182 for a 748. Of the 16 women, only Linda Higenell & Amy Bouchard have a pair, but they both do not bowl locally with Higenell living in the U.S. Connie Ward has a 300 in ten pins and a 450 in five pins, but she also does not bowl tenpins anymore. The other 12 perfect Hamilton women are Joyce Campbell, Val Chastney, Val Ciach-Link, Patti Ellis, Dee Gallant, Christine Johnston, Chelsea King, Jen Olmsted, Catharine Rowe, Laura Wilmer, , Sioban Ryans & Crystal Whitfield. Of these 11, only Ciach-Link & Whitfield still bowl locally.

Ed Margueratt started with a pair of 179 games but soon forgot about a triplicate as a 278 followed for a 636 triple. Two weeks later a final game 279 gave him a 624 to maintain his 198 average. Also with 279 were Mike Alexander, Bill Lishinski, Paul Ward and Spencer Sharkey, 170 average; collected a Century award for his 277 and was plus 215 with a 725.

Val Ciach-Link is flirting with a 200 average after she posted 728 & 714, and one week after a 743, Steve Cowie scored a 699. Veronica Berg, a 165 average, was plus 165 with a 660.

Lynn & Lee Oliver won our annual Scotch Doubles tournament by 11 pins over Mark & Lisa Ward and our Alibi No-Tap tournament was won by Kenton Schatz, Ilya Ziborov & Aidan Mountain.

HAMILTON TENPIN TRIVIA:

Two years ago a fire was the reason Bowl-A-Drome , a five-pin house in east Hamilton, ceased operations. Last year Bowlero, another five-pin house in central Hamilton closed their doors. Now comes the news that Bowlerama Stoney Creek, formerly Lucky Strikes Lanes, a split 24-lane house, will cease operations next month as the property has been sold, along with the house next door, where many managers, including the late Bill Ciach lived. It has been in operations for 60 years, and has seen perfect games in both five & ten pins, with Ciach scoring one of the 450's. His son Joe & daughter Val, have both rolled 300's in tenpin play. Until Jack Fine, of Bowlerama fame, passed away recently, he was the owner. Rumour is that a condo will replace it.

In the past ten years, these local houses have been closed: Ancaster Country Lanes, Mohawk Bowlerama, Grimsby Pro Bowl, Oakville Bowlerama, Sportsman and Burl Oak. On a positive note, still open are Skyway Lanes, Splitsville Hamilton & Splitsville Burlington, Burlington Bowl, Star Lanes, Whitehorse, - University Lanes, Waterdown Lanes, Martins, Mountain, Sherwood & Roseland.

The first perfect game in Hamilton was rolled by Harvey Bray of St. Catharines and the first perfect game in St. Catharines was rolled by Walt Bohaychuk of Hamilton. For their 300s, prizes included a new car, television, luggage, milk, and cash. After missing the first game, Bray rolled 208 and "300" while Bohaychuk's games were 164, "300" and 164.

For winning the 1993 Orchard Super Classic in Singapore, 229 to 183, Don Schatz of Hamilton won $15,000. The local paper said "Schatz hails from Stoney Creek, on the outskirts of Toronto". Maybe they need a map. The prize for a 300 way back then was almost $300,000 in cash and prizes which was not claimed although an Australian had the first ten for a 288. By the way, that $300,000 figure is correct.

For the five-pinnars in Hamilton, Gord Marsh in 1954, after a 514 double, fired a 450 for a 964 triple at Central Lanes. At the Y.M.C.A. Lanes in 1955, Bob McDonald thought he had the high game jackpot won with a 390 before Art McGuiggan threw a 395 the next game.

Brock Bowler Eyes World Championships

Thursday, March 09, 2017 | by Maryanne Firth.

This is an article reprinted from The Brock News.

The Brock News is published by the Office of University Marketing and Communications to serve faculty, staff and friends of the university.

Fourth-year Kinesiology student and avid bowler Miranda Panas is vying to join Team Canada for the seventh consecutive year.

Miranda Panas has little time to spare. The fourth-year Kinesiology student splits her time between hitting the books at Brock University and perfecting her throw at a local bowling alley.

CTF CONNECTION
*TEAM CANADA NEWS ***

Panas has bowled her way onto Team Canada annually for the past six years and is vying to again join the national team in 2018. The 21-year-old St. Catharines resident is busy preparing for spring Team Trials that will determine whether she's earned a coveted spot on next year's roster.

The coming months will also bring word from a selection committee that will determine whether Panas is one of two women who will represent Canada at the World Games in Wroclaw, Poland in July. [Editor's Note: Panas was indeed selected subsequent to the publication of this article]

"Bowling has taken me all over the world," said Panas, who is also hoping to claim a spot at December's Mixed World Championships in Kuwait. Six men and six women from the Canadian teams will be chosen to compete.

Panas began bowling when she was four years old and has been hitting the 10-pin lanes competitively since she turned 11.

Her love for the sport, and a killer hook, has taken her to national tournaments across Canada, and to competitions in Puerto Rico, Mexico, Colombia, Hong Kong and the United Arab Emirates. She has earned two silver and two bronze medals at various international events.

Despite her travels and demanding practice schedule, Panas has managed to maintain her schoolwork and is scheduled to walk across the stage at Spring Convocation.

Balancing athletics and education is not always an easy task. "It takes a lot of planning and dedication to both," Panas said, while admitting she encountered some challenges during her first year of post secondary. "That was the most difficult year for me — the workload is so different from high school and you have to improve your study habits so much," she said. "But once I got into more of a routine and figured out how to make everything work, it got a lot easier."

During competition season, Panas spends five to six nights a week at Fairview Bowling Lanes in St. Catharines. Her schedule includes a delicate balance of on-lane practice and mental preparation, in addition to her study time and a part-time job at Shoppers Drug Mart.

"School has always been something that's really important to me," Panas said, adding she has career ambitions that extend beyond the bowling lanes.

She plans to compete on the Professional Women's Bowling Association summer tour but will then be heading to grad school for physiotherapy.

"Competing with Team Canada gives me the best of both worlds. It's not as demanding as bowling professionally, but at the same time the competitive nature is still there," Panas said. "I'm bowling against the best competitors in the world."

While she has several years of international competitions under her belt, Panas said it is still intimidating at times to face off against some of the female bowlers she grew up admiring. "I get nervous before going to tournaments,” she said with a laugh, “but it’s worth it.” “Every experience I get to have bowling for Canada is pretty incredible. There’s nothing quite like it, that’s for sure.”

Panas said the sport often flies under the radar.

She hopes to encourage people of all ages to give bowling a try. “Join a league. It’s a really fun way to spend a few hours,” she said, adding it can be a surprising way to learn more about yourself.

“It has taught me a lot over the years.”

IT'S THE RULE!

Charlotte Konkle, CTF Regulatory Chair

Well here it is, almost the end of another season of bowling – leagues are winding down and holding their banquets and payout meetings, the local associations are scheduling their annual meetings.....wait a minute ! Are the local associations really having an annual meeting and have they held their annual tournament this season? According to the emails coming to me lately it would seem that not every association is doing these 2 very important things!

Take a moment to read your association bylaws – they could be posted on your association's website or are available from your association manager - these state that, in order to keep the charter for the CTF sanctioned associations, an annual tournament and an annual meeting must be held.

And it is not too late – you can schedule a tournament for your designated participants and schedule an annual meeting (as long as you give your bowlers 21days notice) and have it all done as soon as possible. These 2 things will keep your charter from being revoked by CTF as it states in the CTF Bylaws, Article III Membership Section A Membership.

CTF Director Nominations Wanted!

CTF will be holding its Annual Meeting on November 18, 2017 in Windsor, ON. At that meeting, there will be an election to fill three Director positions that will be open on Jan. 1, 2018 for a 3-year term.

If you, or someone you know, are interested in make a difference and becoming a Director, please fill out the Director Nomination form. All provincial and local associations have been sent a reminder letter about this and we want all of our registered participants to be aware of this opportunity.

The application form is available for viewing and downloading on the CTF website (gotenpinbowling.ca). The form is in English and French in the Miscellaneous section and is called "CTF Director Application".
